11.01 General

The Mutual Interest Committee is a forum for labour-management consultation during the life of a collective agreement, one that promotes on-going dialogue on matters of concern and mutual interest. Such a committee should be established in conjunction with the collective agreement. The committee generally meets to examine and discuss “in-house” issues brought forward by either management or the union or both. It also provides a medium for two-way communications on matters of general interest. These discussions take place outside of, and are separate and distinct from, both collective bargaining negotiations and the grievance process.

11.02 Guiding Principles

The Mutual Interest Committee provides an opportunity for direct, open and free discussion. Participants should be prepared to focus on workplace issues and to listen to the views expressed by others.

- (a) Participants should be those directly involved in the day-to-day application of the collective agreement, i.e. departmental management and local representatives.
- (b) Membership: The committee shall be composed of five (5) representatives of employees and five (5) representatives of management.

Management representatives shall be appointed by the Corporation. Union representatives shall consist of employees appointed or elected by the Union but shall not exceed in any case one (1) employee from any classification. In the case of the following classifications, two (2) employees shall be permitted: (1) Labourer, (2) Equipment Operator A, (3) Equipment Operator B, (4) Parks Recreation Attendant, (5) Plant Operator.

and

- (c) Minutes: Minutes of all meetings will be forwarded to the Union and the Corporation and shall be posted on all bulletin boards covered by this Agreement after being approved by the committee. The secretary appointed by the Chairperson shall state in the minutes the positions of both parties on all issues as directed by the Chairperson and Co-Chairperson.
- (d) Meetings: The committee shall meet on the fourth Thursday of the month at 2:00 p.m. or as conveniently arranged by the Chairman and Co-Chairman or by the committee at a previous meeting. Agendas will be prepared by the Chairman and Co-Chairman and distributed three (3) days in advance of the meeting, when possible.
- (e) Allow parties to caucus separately and in private, from time to time.
- (f) Separate “people” from the issues, avoid criticism of individuals.
- (g) Listen! Allow participants to express their views without interruption. Recognize that understanding the “other” point of view does not necessarily mean agreeing with it. Focus on interests and needs.
- (h) Be creative and open to ideas, look for solutions.
- (i) Involve the other party in the search for solutions.
- (j) Immunity: Representatives on the committee or invited guests shall be protected against any loss of regular pay by reason of attendance at meetings, and guaranteed that their individual relations with the department shall not be affected by action taken by them in good faith in their representative capacity.
- (k) Sub-Committees: the committee may appoint whatever sub-committees are required to carry out its functions.
- (l) Authority: The matters that this committee would not be in a position to resolve shall be referred to the Union’s membership and the Corporation, along with the appropriate comments and views in order to seek adequate guidance.

12.01 The purpose of this section is to establish procedures for discussion, processing and settlement of grievances. Should questions arise concerning interpretations, application or an alleged violation of the provisions of this agreement between the Corporation and the Union or any employee or any person entitled to grieve, the following procedure shall apply:

12.02 Step One: Within fifteen (15) working days after the alleged grievance has arisen (or become known to the employee (s) or Union in the case of monetary matters), a meeting shall take place between the employee (s) concerned and the immediate supervisor in an attempt to settle the grievance. If the supervisor requires discussion with the Department Head or his delegate prior to responding to the employee, a meeting will be held between the supervisor, the Department Head or his delegate, the employee(s) and the Chairman of the Grievance Committee or Union Representative within five (5) working days. Within three (3) working days of that meeting, a verbal response will be given to the employee and the Union Representative.

Step Two: Failing satisfactory settlement, at Step 1, within ten (10) working days, the employees accompanied by the Grievance Committee or the Union Representative, may take the matter up with the Director of Human Resources. In so doing, he will submit to the Director of Human Resources a complete written record of the grievance and the redress sought. The Director of Human Resources shall render his decision, in writing, within ten (10) working days of receipt of such written notice.

Step Three: Failing any reply or satisfactory settlement within the time period specified, the matter may be referred to arbitration as provided in Article 12 within ten (10) working days from the expiration of such period.

12.03 In determining the time within which any step except arbitration is to be taken under the foregoing provisions of this Article, Saturdays, Sundays, Statutory Holidays, Vacation, Sickness, Workers' Compensation, Long Term Disability or any approved leave of absence shall be excluded.

12.04 Any and all time limits fixed by this Article may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.

12.06 No grievance shall be defeated because of improper spelling or incorrect identification of an employee.

12.07 The Corporation and the Union reserve the right to file a grievance of general application, which shall be filed at Step Two (2) of the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days after the alleged grievance has arisen. The Union, upon written request, will be granted a maximum of thirty (30) days from the date of the alleged grievance to submit a complete written record of the grievance and the redress sought.

12.08 Supplementary agreements, if any, shall be in writing and form part of this Agreement and are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE 13 - ARBITRATION

13.01 If the Union or the Corporation wishes to refer a matter to arbitration as provided in Step Three (3), it shall within the ten (10) working day period therein mentioned, give to the Corporation or the Union, written notice of its intention to arbitrate.

13.03 The arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation (including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable) and shall issue a decision and the decision shall be final and binding.

13.04 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

13.05 Each of the parties hereto will equally bear the expenses of the arbitrator.

13.06 At any stage of the grievance procedure, including arbitration, the conferring parties may have the assistance of the employee or employees concerned and any witnesses, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties to have access to Corporation premises to view disputed operations and to confer with the necessary witnesses. One (1) grievor will be entitled to attend the arbitration hearing without loss of regular pay. In the case of a union or group grievance, one (1) grievor and one (1) union representative will be entitled to attend the arbitration hearing without loss of regular pay.

13.07 The sole function of the arbitrator shall be to interpret the meaning of the sections of this Agreement and to render a decision. The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from or modify the terms of the Agreement.

13.08 Any and all time limits, fixed by this section may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Corporation and the Union. Should the matter not be referred to arbitration within the time limits or extended as set out in this subsection, it shall be deemed to have been abandoned and cannot be reopened.

This notice shall contain particulars of the activity or performance deemed unsatisfactory. Such warning shall be given to the employee within ten (10) working days of the incident or from the day it was reported or made known to Management. If this procedure is not followed, such activity or performance will not become part of his record. 15.07 The record of an employee shall not be used against him and shall be removed from his personnel file after twelve (12) months have elapsed since a verbal or written warning, and after eighteen (18) months have elapsed since a suspension, provided there has been no recurrence of a similar and/or any other infraction.

15.08 An employee shall not be disciplined where he is unable to discharge his employment obligations because of illness or infirmity attributable to a problem related to drugs or alcohol provided that he enrolls in a recognized rehabilitation program (when available).

15.09 An employee has the right to have access to review his personnel file insofar as discipline is concerned, and this review shall take place within a three (3) day notice period as given to the Director of Human Resources, and at a time mutually agreed.
