BETWEEN: RIVERSIDE COURT RETIREMENT RESIDENCE INC. WOODSTOCK N.B hereinafter called "the Employer", Party of the First Part;

AND: CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 5064, hereinafter called "the Union", Party of the Second Part.

PREAMBLE

It is the purpose of both Parties to this Agreement:

- 1) To maintain and improve harmonious relations and settled conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union.
- 2) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions, employment, service, etc.
- 3) To encourage efficiency in operations;
- 4) To promote the morale, wellbeing and security of all Employees in the bargaining unit of the Union;
- 5) To record all terms and conditions of employment that have resulted from collective bargaining;
- 6) To provide a method of settling grievances or differences which may arise with respect to matters covered by this Agreement; and
- 7) Consider the provision of proper care to the residents as the paramount concern of both Parties.

ARTICLE 1 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

1.01 The Union recognizes and agrees that it is the sole and exclusive right of the Employer to manage the business and direct its working forces, and recognizes that all of the functions, rights, powers, authority, etc. which are not specifically abridged, delegated or modified by this Agreement are retained by the Employer.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 5064 as the sole and exclusive Bargaining Agent for all members of the bargaining unit as per New Brunswick Labour and Employment Board Order Number IR-014-11, made on May 3, 2011. The Parties also agree that the following are excluded from the bargaining unit:
- (a) Students on work placement.
- 2.02 Bulletin Board – The Employer shall provide a bulletin board, which shall be placed so that all Employees will have access to it, and upon which the Union shall have the right to post notices of meetings. The notices placed on the bulletin board shall contain no derogatory connotation about the Employer or its Employees.
- 2.03 The Employer shall not institute policies, rules or regulations that conflict with the terms of this Agreement. Such policies, rules or regulations shall be initiated upon 72 hours notice, in writing, being given to the Union in advance. No Employee shall be required or permitted to enter into a verbal or written agreement with the Employer which conflicts with the terms of this Agreement.
- 2.04 Employees outside the bargaining unit shall not perform bargaining unit work except for the purposes of:
- (a) Instruction;
 - (b) Emergency; and
 - (c) When such work has historically been performed by non-bargaining unit Employees and will not cause a reduction in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 3 – DEFINITIONS

- 3.01 “Employee”, for the purpose of this Agreement shall mean an Employee employed by the Employer as defined in the Industrial Relations Act for the Province of New Brunswick and is covered by this Agreement.
- 3.02 “Employees”, irrespective of classification, may be subdivided into the following categories:
- (a) Full time Employees shall mean, for the purpose of this Agreement, an Employee who is regularly employed to work a normal work week of twenty-five or more hours per week on average over a 12 week period.
 - (b) Part time Employees shall mean, for the purpose of this Agreement, an Employee who works less than twenty-five hours per normal work week on average over a 12 week period, a portion of which is regularly scheduled.

(c) Casual Employees shall mean, for the purpose of this Agreement, an Employee who was hired by the Employer as a Casual Employee and works irregular hours and on an as-needed basis.

3.03 "Employer", for the purpose of this Agreement shall mean Riverside Court Retirement Residence INC.

3.04 "Union" shall mean the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

3.05 "Local" shall mean a Riverside Court Retirement Resident Employee's organization chartered by the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

3.06 "Day", in all cases in this Agreement, where the term "Calendar Day" is not used "work day" will apply.

3.07 "Gender", throughout this Agreement, words importing gender shall apply to both.

3.08 "Hours of Work", for the purpose of this Agreement, shall mean actual hours of work Employees are required to be on duty.

3.09 "Grievance", for the purpose of this Agreement, shall be any dispute arising from:

- (a) an alleged violation of a specific article or section of this Agreement;
- (b) the interpretation or application of a specific article or section of this Agreement;
- (c) disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or a financial penalty.

ARTICLE 4 – DISCRIMINATION

4.01 The Parties agree that there be no discrimination as defined in the Human Rights Act, R.S.N.B., and Chapter H-11.

4.02 Harassment – The Employer agrees to create a Harassment Policy within six months, which Policy shall be created in consultation with the Union and included in the Employee Handbook.

4.03 Union Participation – The Employer shall not discriminate or intimidate any Employee as a result of being a member of the Union, being a member of the Union Executive or as a result of exercising their right as a Union member.

ARTICLE 5 – APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT

5.01 This Agreement applies to and is binding on the Union, the Local, the Employees, the Employer and supersedes any other verbal or written agreement.

5.02 There shall be no written or verbal agreements which conflict with the terms of this Agreement. All modifications to this Agreement must be in writing and executed by the Local, the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 6 – NO STRIKE NO LOCKOUTS

6.01 There shall be no strikes or lockouts during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – MAINTENANCE OF MEMBERSHIP PER UNION PROPOSAL

7.01 All Employees of the Employer who are presently members of the Union shall continue being members of the Union as a condition of employment. All future Employees of the Employer shall, as a condition of employment, become members of the Union. Nothing in this Article will obligate the Employer to terminate an Employee unless it is for failure to pay Union dues.

ARTICLE 8 – CHECK OFF OF UNION DUES

8.01 Check Off – The Employer shall deduct from every Employee's pay, regular monthly Union dues in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or bylaws, and owing by such Employee to the Union, commencing on the date of hiring. The Local shall notify the Employer in writing the exact amount of dues to be deducted.

8.02 Notification of a change in the amount of such deduction shall be presented to the Employer in writing by the Union, as far in advance as is practical, but with the minimum time period of thirty (30) days.

8.03 Deductions – shall be made for the payroll period at the end of each month and shall be forwarded to the secretary-treasurer of the Union no later than the 15th day of the month following, accompanied by a list of names, addresses, phone numbers and classifications, the amount of deductions from each Employee from whose wages the deductions have been made and the total amount of regular wages earned.

8.04 Acquaint New Employees – The Employer agrees to acquaint new Employees with the fact that a collective agreement is in effect and to explain Dues Check Off.

8.05 T4 Slip – The Employer shall indicate on each Employee's T4 slip the amount of dues paid by the Employee during the previous year.

8.06 The Union shall indemnify and save harmless the Employer from any and all claims, which may be made against it, by any Employee or Employees for amounts deducted from wages as herein provided.

ARTICLE 9 – COPIES OF THE AGREEMENT

- 9.01 Each Employee shall be provided with a copy of the Agreement on the first pay day following delivery, provided that the delivery is made at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the pay day. Each new Employee will be given a copy of the current collective agreement and advised of the name of the Local Union representatives. The Local will be given the names of all newly hired Employees on a monthly basis.
- 9.02 Both the Union and the Employer symbol will be contained on the front cover.
- 9.03 The Union and Employer agree to pay for the costs of printing collective agreements on a 25/75 basis.

ARTICLE 10 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

- 10.01 It is mutually agreed that the Employer and the Local shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible towards the prevention of accidents and the promotion of health and safety in the workplace. A Safety Committee shall be established in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act which Act shall apply to this Agreement. Committee members shall not suffer any loss of pay while performing Committee business. The Safety Committee shall have a Union representative on the Committee.
- 10.02 The Employer shall continue to make reasonable provisions for the health and safety of its Employees during their hours of employment. Protective devices and other equipment deemed necessary to protect Employees properly from injury shall be supplied by the Employer.
- 10.03 An Employee who suffers an occupational injury shall submit, as soon as possible, a written report stating particulars to the Employer.

ARTICLE 11 – LABOUR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 11.01 Establishment of Committee – The Parties to this Agreement recognize the benefits which can be derived from a Labour Management Committee and shall establish such Committee. It is agreed that such Committee shall be composed of a mutually agreeable number of Employer and Union Employee representatives of up to four (4) from each Party. Meetings shall be held on a monthly basis on a date to be agreed to by the Parties. Each Party shall provide to the other Party a list of items to be included on the agenda, which list shall be provided in writing at least five (5) days prior to the meeting date. The Union may have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees at Labour Management Meetings provided five (5) days advance notice is given, if possible. The Employer may also have the assistance of an outside representative at Labour Management meetings provided five (5) days advance notice is given, if possible.

- 11.02 Jurisdiction of Committee – The Committee shall not have jurisdiction over wages or any other matter of collective bargaining, including the administration of the Collective Agreement.
- 11.03 Power of Committee – The Committee shall function in an advisory capacity and shall not have power to alter, amend, add or to modify the terms of this Agreement. The Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Local, Union and the Employer with respect to the Committee's discussions. The Committee does not have the power to bind either the Local or its members or the Employer.
- 11.04 Minutes of a Committee Meeting shall be prepared and signed by the Committee as promptly as possible after the close of the meeting. The Local and the Employer shall receive two (2) signed copies of the minutes within fourteen (14) days following the meeting.

ARTICLE 12 – BARGAINING COMMITTEE

- 12.01 Representatives – The Union shall have the right, at any time, to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing or negotiating with the Employer, and the Employer shall have the assistance of any person it deems necessary in dealing or negotiating with the Union.

ARTICLE 13 – UNION STEWARDS

- 13.01 Election of Stewards – In order to provide for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the rights of the Union to appoint or elect stewards whose duties shall be to assist an Employee which the Steward represents in preparing and presenting his/her grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.
- 13.02 Names of Stewards – The Union shall notify the Employer in writing, of the names of each Steward before the Employer shall be required to recognize them. Any changes in the Steward personnel shall be provided in writing to the Employer promptly.
- 13.03 Servicing Grievances – No Steward shall leave his/her work without first getting permission from one of the Employer's designated representatives. He/she must also report to an Employer representative when returning to work. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 14 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 14.01 Settling of Grievances – It is understood that any Employee who has a potential grievance shall first discuss the potential grievance with his/her immediate supervisor, accompanied by his Steward or a member of the Union Executive if the Employee so desires and afford such supervisor an opportunity to settle the potential grievance. Failing such settlement, the Employee (accompanied by his/her Steward or a member of the local executive if the Employee wishes) shall be entitled to initiate the following additional steps. At each step in the grievance procedure, the issue shall be presented in writing, specifying the particulars of the grievance, the alleged Article violated and the remedy sought.

STEP 1: Where the matter has not been resolved through discussion as in the first paragraph of Article 14.01 above, then the grievance shall be presented in writing by the Employee or the Steward to the Manager of the department the Employee works in within ten (10) days from the time the incident occurred giving rise to the grievance. The Manager shall render his/her decision, in writing, within ten (10) days from the receipt of the grievance.

STEP 2: Should there be no settlement of the grievance in Step 1, the grievance shall be presented by the Union in writing to the Administrator of the Employer within ten (10) days after receipt of the decision under Step 1. The Administrator shall render his/her decision, in writing, within ten (10) days from the receipt of the grievance.

STEP 3: Should there be no settlement of the grievance in Step 2, the grievance shall be presented by the Union in writing to the Chair of the Board of the Employer within ten (10) days after receipt of the decision under Step 2. The Chair of the Board shall render his/her decision, in writing, within ten (10) days from the receipt of the grievance.

STEP 4: Should there be no settlement of the grievance under Step 3, the Union shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the decision under Step 3, refer the grievance to arbitration, in writing, as provided for in Article 14.

- 14.02 Union or Policy Grievance – Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of Employees files a grievance, the grievance procedure may commence at Step 2 of Article 14.01.
- 14.03 Employer Grievance – The Employer may institute a grievance by presenting the grievance in writing to the Union President or his/her designate. The Union President shall render his/her decision, in writing, within twenty-one (21) days after the receipt of the grievance. Failing satisfactory settlement, the Employer shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Union President's decision, refer the grievance to arbitration, in writing, as provided for in Article 14.
- 14.04 Grievance on Layoffs – Grievances concerning layoffs shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure and the Parties may agree to any mutual acceptable expedited process to deal with grievances resulting from layoffs.
- 14.05 Time Limits – The time limits in this Article and Article 14 are mandatory and may only be changed by mutual consent confirmed in writing. If a decision is not rendered by the person to whom the grievance is presented within the required time limits in Article 14.01 or Article 14.03 or Article 14.04 (as the case may be), it shall be deemed to be a denial of the grievance as of the expiry date of the applicable time limit, and the grieving party may proceed forward to the next step. If a grievance is not presented within the time limits of each step or is not referred to arbitration within the time limits, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and will be null and void and cannot be reopened.

- 14.06 Technical Objections to Grievances – No grievance shall be defeated by a technical objection (not including an objection as per Article 14.05 as to timeliness or as to the jurisdiction of the arbitrator) and an arbitrator shall have power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive procedural irregularities in processing grievances, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision.

ARTICLE 15 – ARBITRATION

- 15.01 No matter may be submitted to arbitration unless settlement thereof has been attempted through the grievance procedure set forth in Article 14.
- 15.02 If the applicable Party wishes to refer a matter to arbitration, it shall notify the other Party of their intent within the time limits provided in Article 14 in writing by registered mail addressed to the other Party of this Agreement.
- 15.03 The Parties agree to the use of a sole Arbitrator. If the Parties to this Agreement cannot agree on the Arbitrator within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the notice of intention provided in Article 15.02, either Party may request the Minister designated under the Industrial Relations Act of New Brunswick to appoint an impartial Arbitrator.
- 15.04 Procedure - The Arbitrator may determine its own procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all Parties to present evidence and make representation to it.
- 15.05 Decision of the Arbitrator – The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and render its decision within thirty (30) working days from the date of the final hearing. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and upon any Employee affected by it. In no event shall the Arbitrator have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions, nor make any general changes such as changes in wage rates, nor deal with any matter not covered by this Agreement.
- 15.06 Disagreement on Decision - Should the Parties disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either Party may, within fifteen (15) days after the decision is received, apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision, which the Arbitrator shall do within thirty (30) days.
- 15.07 Expenses of the Board - Each Party shall share equally the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 16 – DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE

- 16.01 Pre-Discipline Representation – An Employee who is facing any disciplinary action with respect to an incident or incidents, shall be afforded an opportunity to respond before any disciplinary measures are administered. The Employee has the right to Union representation at any meeting involving an investigation that may lead to disciplinary action.
- 16.02 Warnings – Whenever the Employer or a person representing the Employer sees it necessary to censure an Employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow if such Employee fails to bring his work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer shall within ten (10) calendar days thereafter give written particulars of such censure to the Union, with a copy to the Employee involved. Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to censure an Employee, this shall be done in a private area. He/she shall be given the reasons in the presence of a Steward, or if no Steward is available, a Union representative of his/her choice.

- 16.03 Discharge Procedure – An Employee may be suspended or discharged but only for just cause. When an Employee is suspended or discharged, he shall be given the reason in the presence of a Steward, or if no Steward is available, a local Union member of his choice provided this is possible. Such Employee and Union shall be advised promptly, in writing, by the Employer of the reason for such suspension or discharge.
- 16.04 May Omit Grievance Steps – An Employee considered by the Local to be wrongfully or unjustly suspended or discharged shall be entitled to a hearing under Article 14, Grievance Procedure. Step 1 of the grievance procedure shall be omitted in such case.
- 16.05 Employee File – Upon request, during normal office hours, an Employee shall be given, in the presence of a representative of the Employer, an opportunity to read and make a copy of any document in his/her personnel file. The Employee shall have the right to Union representation at this time and shall pay the reasonable costs of copying the file.
- 16.06 Record of Disciplinary Action – A record of disciplinary action cannot be used against an Employee after the expiry of twenty-four (24) months, providing no other instance of disciplinary action in respect to the Employee has been recorded during that period.
- 16.07 When the signature of an Employee on a disciplinary or censure document is requested by the Employer, the Employee's signature shall serve as evidence to indicate that its contents have been read and understood and not as evidence that he/she agrees or disagrees with it.

ARTICLE 17 – SENIORITY

- 17.01 Seniority is defined as the number of paid hours worked by an Employee for the Employer since the date of hire and includes Union leave, maternity leave, paternity leave, sick leave and Workers Compensation leave. An up-to-date seniority list to the completion of the most recent pay period shall be sent to the Union and posted on the Union bulletin board on January 15th, April 15th, July 15th and October 15th of each year.
- 17.02 Loss of Seniority – No Employee shall lose his/her seniority in the case of sickness, accident or leave of absence approved by the Employer. An Employee shall lose his/her seniority, forfeit all rights contained in this Agreement and deemed to be terminated with no right to rehire in the event:
- (a) He/she is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure or arbitration procedure;
 - (b) He/she resigns;

- (c) He/she is absent from work in excess of five (5) consecutive working days without giving the Employer a valid and acceptable explanation;
- (d) He/she fails to return to work from layoff within seven (7) working days following notification by registered mail or any other means the Employer may choose, except in case of sickness. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of his/her current address and telephone number; or
- (e) He/she is laid off for a period of longer than eighteen (18) months.

ARTICLE 18 – PROBATION PERIOD

18.01 Probationary Employees – Newly hired Employees shall be considered on a probation basis for the first ninety (90) days from the date of hiring. During the probationary period, Employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The employment of such Employee may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the grievance or arbitration procedure. When an Employee completes his/her probationary period, the Employee's seniority shall start from the date of hiring.

ARTICLE 19 – VACANCIES, PROMOTIONS, AND STAFF CHANGES

- 19.01 Job Postings – Where a permanent job vacancy occurs in the bargaining unit, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing and post a notice for seven (7) consecutive days. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of close of competition, the name of any successful applicant shall be posted.
- 19.02 Information on Postings – Such notice shall contain the following information: duties of the position, qualifications required, knowledge and/or work experience required, education, required skills and/or abilities, hours of work, wage rate and anticipated starting date.
- 19.03 Method of Making Appointments – The Employer will first consider all internal applicants. In making its selection, the Employer will consider qualifications, education, work experience, knowledge and ability. Where the foregoing factors are equal, the senior applicant will be chosen. Should there be no qualified applicant the Employer may fill the job from outside the bargaining unit.
- 19.04 Trial Period – If the successful applicant is an existing Employee, he/she shall be placed on trial for a period of twenty (20) working shifts. In the event the Employer finds that the successful applicant is unsatisfactory in the job, or if the Employee finds he/she is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification during the aforementioned trial period, he/she shall be returned to their former job and rate of pay without loss of seniority. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of jobs, shall also be returned to his/her former job or rate of pay without loss of seniority.

- 19.05 Temporary Vacancy – Where a temporary vacancy occurs and it is known in advance to be more than a period of three (3) months, it shall be filled as per 19.01.
- 19.06 Union Notification – The Union shall be notified monthly of all appointments, hirings, layoffs, transfers, recalls, terminations of employment and of those who have completed their probationary period.
- 19.07 Resignation – If an Employee wishes to resign, he shall notify the Employer in writing at least fourteen (14) calendar days before his termination date, in writing.

ARTICLE 20 – LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

- 20.01 A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the workforce arising from a shortage of work.
- 20.02 In the event of a layoff in a department, the Employer agrees to lay off Employees in the reverse order of seniority in the department requiring layoffs, providing the Employees remaining in a department possess the necessary skill and ability to do the work available.
- 20.03 When recalling Employees after layoff, those laid off in the department, will be first to be recalled to the department provided the Employee is willing and has the necessary skill and ability to perform the job.
- 20.04 For Notice of Layoff the Employer shall notify Employees who are to be laid off ten (10) days before the layoff.
- 20.05 An Employee who is affected by a work shortage in his department will be entitled to claim the job of another Employee in any department subject to the following conditions:
- (a) That such other job is held by an Employee with less seniority.
 - (b) That such Employee claiming the job has the skills, abilities and qualifications to perform the job.
 - (c) Such Employees meeting the requirements under (b) above shall be given a reasonable period of time to demonstrate sufficient skills and ability to perform the job.
- 20.06 Employees shall have seventy-two (72) hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, after written notification of layoff, to exercise their rights under this Article. This time limit may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and Employee.
- 20.07 Part time or full time Employees who are laid off shall be offered casual and/or temporary employment during their period of recall by order of seniority, provided they are available and have the necessary skills, abilities and qualifications.

ARTICLE 21 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 21.01 (a) All work performed in excess of eighty-eight (88) hours over a two (2) week period shall constitute overtime. The regular daily hours of work in each shift shall not exceed twelve (12) hours. No Employee shall be required to work more than two (2) consecutive shifts without an eight (8) hour break between the first and second shifts.
- (b) On the first anniversary of the date of ratification the eighty-eight (88) hours referred to in Article 21.01(a) shall be reduced to eighty-four (84) hours and on the second anniversary of the date of ratification the eighty-four (84) hours shall be reduced to eighty-two (82) hours.
- 21.02 Rotation and Days Off – The present method of scheduling hours of work as well as days off shall not change during the term of the Agreement without consultation with the Union.
- 21.03 (a) All Employees working a twelve (12) hour shift shall receive two thirty (30) minute unpaid breaks and two fifteen (15) minute paid breaks.
- (b) All Employees working a regularly scheduled eight (8) hour shift shall receive one thirty (30) minute unpaid break and two fifteen (15) minute paid breaks.
- 21.04 There shall be no pyramiding of overtime.
- 21.05 In the event an Employee is preauthorized to work and does work overtime, he/she will be compensated by pay at time and one half his/her regular hourly rate (the "Overtime Rate").
- 21.06 Distribution of overtime and cal back time shall be distributed equitably among the Employees who have the skills, abilities and qualifications to do the required work. All overtime must be preapproved by the Employee's supervisor.
- 21.07 (a) Callouts – A full time Employees who are called out to work after his/her work day and prior to the commencement of their next shift, shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours at the applicable overtime rate.
- (b) All part-time or casual Employees are called out to work after the work day, shall be paid for hours worked with a minimum of two (2) hours paid.
- (c) No Employee shall be required to work more than four (4) consecutive hours without receiving a paid or unpaid break.
- 21.08 Calls In – All part-time or casual Employees who are called in to work shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at their regular rate.

ARTICLE 22 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

22.01 Bereavement Leave

- (a) In the event of the death of an Employee's wife, husband, common law spouse, same sex partner, child, adopted child, stepchild, father, mother, brother, sister, guardian or ward, the Employer shall grant the Employee a leave of absence of up to five (5) consecutive calendar days.
- (b) In the event of the death of an Employee's grandfather, grandmother, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, the Employer shall grant the Employee a leave of absence of up to three (3) consecutive days off.
- (c) In the event of the death of an Employee's aunt or uncle, the Employer shall grant the Employee a leave of absence of up to one (1) day off on the day of the funeral.
- (d) If any of those consecutive days of absences are scheduled work days for the Employee, the Employer shall receive pay (the Employee's regular straight time rate times the number of hours the Employee was scheduled to work on the day) for such scheduled work days missed.
- (e) Additional special leave with pay may be granted upon request to the Employer.
- (f) An Employee who on vacation suffers a loss covered by bereavement leave shall be entitled to use his/her bereavement leave on the basis as if he/she had been scheduled to work during his/her vacation which rescheduled vacation shall be at a time to be mutually agreed.

22.02 Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence, upon request, shall be granted by the Employer to the Employee elected or appointed to represent the Union business. Such request shall be made a minimum of fourteen (14) days in advance and shall be subject to the approval of the Employer which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. However, not more than two (2) Employees from the same department shall be entitled to leave of absence at the same time for this purpose nor more than a maximum of four (4) Employees at one time.
- (b) Employees shall not suffer any loss of pay when required to leave their employment temporarily in conjunction with a grievance meeting held pursuant to Article 14, provided such Employee obtains the permission of their immediate supervisor, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (c) Union members on approved leaves of absence for union business shall be given leaves of absence with pay. The Union shall then reimburse the Employer once the Employer has provided a lost wages bill to the Union.

22.03 Leave for Union Employment

One Employee who is elected for a full time position with the Union or the Local shall be granted leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority for a maximum period of one (1) year. If it is permissible under the group insurance plan, the Employee shall have the right to pay the full costs, including the Employer's share, during the period of such leave of absence.

22.04 Termination of Leave

Failure to report to work upon termination of leave of absence may result in severance of employment.

22.05 Leave for Other Reasons

- (a) Leave of absence without pay, for reasons other than those specified above, may also be granted at the discretion of the Employer.
- (b) Where operational requirements permit, and upon request, an Employee may be granted leave for family commitments. Such leave shall not be unreasonably withheld. An Employee shall, at his discretion, use vacation or holidays.
- (c) Employees in the bargaining unit shall have the right to apply for Compassionate Care Leave without pay subject to the provisions of the New Brunswick Employment Standards Act as amended from time to time.
- (d) Employees, when unable to attend at work because of illness or disability, shall be entitled to two (2) days of sick leave per calendar year. For the purpose of sick leave an employee shall be entitled to receive pay for the number of hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work on that date (i.e. if scheduled to work 11 hours, would be paid 11 hours and if scheduled to work 8 hours, would be paid 8 hours). Sick days shall not be cumulative. This sick day benefit shall be for full time employees who have completed their probationary period. During an employees first year of employment after such employee completes their probationary period, such employees sick pay entitlement would be prorated (i.e. if such employee was employed 6 months during the calendar year, after completion of the probationary period such employee would be entitled to 1 paid sick day).

22.06 Maternity, Paternity and Adoption Leave

Maternity, paternity and adoption leave shall be granted as required by law.

22.07 Inclement Weather

- (a) Any Employee who, having made every reasonable effort to report for duty during the course of a storm, has been prevented from doing so because of the condition of public streets and highways, shall be given the opportunity to replace such day by accumulated statutory holiday, accumulated vacation or by working one (1) or more of his/her regular days off for a statutory holiday if staffing patterns permit provided no overtime is incurred.

- (b) All part time or casual employees called out to work after the work day shall be paid for hours worked with a minimum of two (2) hours paid except the driver who shall be paid a minimum of one (1) hour when called in.

22.08 Court Leave

The Employer shall pay the Employee who is required to serve as a juror, the difference between normal earnings and the payment received for jury service up to a maximum of two (2) weeks. The Employee shall produce proof of service and the amount of pay received.

ARTICLE 23 – GENERAL CONDITIONS

23.01 The Employer shall provide a staff room on the ground floor to provide staff a place for meal breaks and coffee breaks. The Employer will provide a microwave, toaster oven and refrigerator.

ARTICLE 24 – ACTING PAY

- 24.01 (a) Extra pay for temporary assignment to a position of a higher classification shall apply to eligible employees who are assigned to the higher rated position for a period of three (3) consecutive working days. Such pay is to be retroactive to the first day of assignment.
- (b) Where a position is temporarily vacant for a period of three (3) consecutive working days, the Employer shall not assign more than one employee for the sole purpose of avoiding payment of temporary assignment pay.
- (c) Eligible employees shall be paid that step on the pay scale of the higher classification. Should that step in the higher scale exceed ten per cent (10%), then a maximum of ten per cent (10%) shall be paid. In no case shall the eligible employee be paid an amount greater than the maximum for that higher classification to which he is assigned.
- (d) An employee required to temporarily fill a classification for which is paid a lower rate than that paid for such employee's regular work shall not receive any reduction in pay.

ARTICLE 25 – HOLIDAYS

25.01 (a) The Employer recognizes the following as holidays (or such other days which the Employer may substitute as the day to observe the holiday) for which an Employee may be eligible (as provided in 14.03) to receive a day off with Holiday Pay as defined in 14.02:

New Year's Day
New Brunswick Day
Good Friday
Remembrance Day

Labour Day
Christmas Day
Boxing Day
Canada Day

- (b) On the first anniversary of the date of ratification, Easter Monday shall be added as a recognized holiday in Article 25.01 above and on the third anniversary of the date of ratification, Thanksgiving shall be added as a recognized holiday in Article 25.01 above.

25.02 Holiday Pay

- (a) Full-time Employees – Holiday Pay, per holiday, for Full-time Employees shall be the Employee's regular hours of work on a work day at the Employee's regular rate of pay. If a Full-time Employee works different hours of work in their regular shifts, (for example, some days at eight hours, some at twelve hours), the regular hours of work for Holiday Pay purposes shall be the average straight time hours of work per day in the twenty-eight (28) days before the holiday.
- (b) Part-time/Casual Employees – Holiday Pay shall be equal to three (3) percent of the Employee's gross wages and included in their pay cheques.

25.03 To be eligible for a holiday and/or Holiday Pay under any provisions of this Agreement, an Employee must work his/her scheduled day of work immediately prior to and after the holiday (unless an absence was approved) and be an Employee for at least ninety (90) days in the twelve (12) months before the Holiday.

25.04 When any of the above noted holidays fall on an Employee's scheduled day off, the Employee shall be given an alternate day off with Holiday Pay on a date granted at the Employer's discretion taking into account the requirements of the business.

25.05 All Employees who work on a holiday shall receive the Overtime Rate for each hour worked on the holiday and Holiday Pay for the holiday.

ARTICLE 26 – VACATION

26.01 On the last day of a Vacation Year, an Employee may be entitled to vacation and/or Vacation Pay to be used during the next Vacation Year as follows, based on the years of continuous employment on that date:

- (a) An Employee who has been an Employee for less than one year of continuous employment shall be entitled to:
- (i) Full-time Employees – Six and two thirds (6 2/3) hours of vacation time off for each full calendar month of service to a maximum of eighty (80) hours of vacation time off with Vacation Pay in a Vacation Year;
- (ii) Other Employees – Vacation Pay only, no time off.

- (b) An Employee who has been an Employee for at least one (1) full Vacation Year and has less than eight (8) years of continuous employment shall be entitled to:
 - (i) Full-time Employees – Eighty (80) hours of vacation time off with Vacation Pay;
 - (ii) Other Employees – Vacation Pay only, no time off.
- (c) An Employee who has eight (8) or more years of continuous employment shall be entitled to:
 - (i) Full-time Employees – One-hundred and twenty (120) hours of vacation time off with Vacation Pay;
 - (ii) Other Employees – Vacation Pay only, no time off.
- (d) Upon the first anniversary of the date of ratification, the eight (8) years referred to in Articles 26.01(b) and (c) shall be reduced to seven (7) years and upon the third anniversary of the date of ratification, the seven (7) years shall be reduced to six (6) years.

26.02 For each paid holiday that falls or is observed during an Employee's vacation, he/she shall be granted an alternative holiday on a date granted at the Employer's discretion taking into account the requirements of the business.

26.03 An Employee whose employment is terminated for any reason shall be paid with his/her final pay an amount of money equivalent to any Vacation Pay which may have accrued to his/her benefit in accordance with Article 26 and not yet been paid.

26.04 Vacations shall be granted at the Employer's discretion taking into account the requirements of the business.

26.05 Vacation must be used within the Vacation Year in which it is entitled to be taken and for full time employees Vacation Pay shall be paid when vacation is taken. The Employer may in exceptional circumstances, at its discretion, choose to pay out any unpaid Vacation Pay at the end of a Vacation Year, or to schedule any unused vacation at a time of the Employer's choosing.

26.06 Vacation Pay will be calculated on an Employee's earnings, not including any other amounts such as allowances, premiums, or Vacation Pay, as follows:

- (a) 4% for Employees entitled under 26.01(a) or 26.01(b); or
- (b) 6% for Employees entitled under 26.01(c).

For Part-time Employees, Vacation Pay is calculated on the pay period and included in their paycheques.

For Full-time Employees, Vacation Pay is calculated on current gross straight time earnings for hours worked and they receive the appropriate portion of accumulated Vacation Pay when vacation time off is taken. Full-time Employees also have the option (exercisable at the start of each Vacation Year) to have Vacation Pay calculated on the pay period and included in their paycheques.

26.07 Vacation Year is defined as the twelve (12) month period from July 1st to June 30th.

ARTICLE 27 – INSURANCE PLANS

27.01 A Full-time Employee may apply for coverage under any group plan which the Employer may have in place. The Employer will pay one half of the monthly premiums and the Employee will pay the other half by payroll deduction. An Employee is not entitled to any benefits, premiums or coverage until after the completion of his/her probationary period and the Employee is accepted by the insurer.

27.02 The Employer's only obligation to Employees with respect to insurance is the payment of its portion of the monthly premiums for enrolled Employees. Eligibility for coverage and all other matters regarding the insurance shall be determined by the insurance company and any dispute in regard to eligibility or any other matter shall be resolved between the Employee and the insurance company and shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration procedure herein.

ARTICLE 28 - DURATION AND TERMINATION

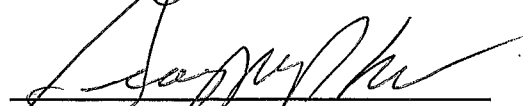

28.01 This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties and shall be in effect for a term beginning on the date of ratification (January 22, 2013) and ending forty-eight (48) months thereafter (January 22, 2017), and shall be automatically renewed thereafter for successive periods of twelve (12) months unless either Party requests the negotiation of a new Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party not less than thirty (30) calendar days and no more than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the expiration of this Agreement or any renewal thereof.

28.02 Notwithstanding the preceding, where a notice requesting negotiation of a new Agreement has been given to Employer, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until such time as an Agreement has been signed in respect of a renewal, amendment, or substitution thereof.

28.03 Agreement to Continue in Force – Both the Parties shall adhere fully to the terms of this Agreement during the period of the Collective Agreement. It is agreed that there will be no retroactive effect given to any clause of this Agreement or matter arising between the Parties unless specifically stated otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties of this Agreement have hereunto signed on this 15th day of February, 2013.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN:

RIVERSIDE COURT RETIREMENT RESIDENCE INC. ("the Employer")

and

CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 5064 ("the Union")

RE: GRANT EMPLOYEES

The Parties agree that notwithstanding Article 2.01, Grant Employees shall be excluded from the Bargaining Unit provided that such Grant Employees shall not be utilized to replace Bargaining Union Employees and that there will be a maximum of three (3) Grant Employees hired in a calendar year unless agreed otherwise by the Parties. The Union shall be notified, in writing, in advance prior to Grant Employees being hired.
