PREAMBLE

It is the intention and purpose of the parties to this Agreement to set forth certain terms and conditions of employment relating to pay, hours of work, and other related terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 1 – MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

1.01 All the functions, rights, powers, and authority which the Employer has not specifically abridged, delegated, or modified by this Agreement are recognized by the Union as being retained by and vested solely in the Employer.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all its employees covered by this agreement save and except those excluded by the Certification Order issued by the New Brunswick Industrial Relations Board and hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union or any of its authorized committees concerning all matters affecting the relationship between the parties to this agreement, looking forward to a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

2.02 Work of the Bargaining Unit – Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except for purpose of instruction, inquiry, experimenting, or relieving for accumulated time; and provided that the act of performing the aforementioned operations, in itself, does not reduce the regular hours of work, pay, or scheduled shift of any employee.

- 2.03 No employee covered by this bargaining unit shall be required or permitted to make any verbal or written agreement that is contrary to the terms and conditions of this agreement without the Union present.

ARTICLE 3 – DEFINITIONS

- 3.01 "Employer" shall mean Sussex Vale Transition House Inc. and shall include its delegated representatives.
- 3.02 "Employee" shall mean all persons within the bargaining unit employed by the Employer.
- 3.03 Employees may be subdivided into the following categories:
- (a) Permanent full-time employees -shall mean an employee who regularly does work of the bargaining unit for 36 hours or more per week.
 - (b) Permanent part-time employee – shall mean ordinarily an employee who is required less than 36 hours per week.
- 3.04 "Probationary Period" for all employees is four months following the date of hire, provided that on the expiration of such period of four months, the Employer may extend the probationary period for a further two months. The total probationary period shall not exceed six months.
- 3.05 "Service" is defined as the actual hours paid directly by the Employer. One year's service is 1872 hours. Service includes periods of leave without pay to attend Union business and while receiving Workers' Compensation Benefits, EI or LTD benefits, and other periods of unpaid sick leave.
- 3.06 "Sick Leave" for the purpose of this agreement, means the period of time an employee is permitted to be absent from work with full pay by virtue of being sick or disabled or because of an accident for which compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act. See Article 20.04.
- 3.07 Plural or Masculine Terms May Apply – Wherever the singular or feminine is used in this agreement, it shall be considered as if the plural or masculine has been used where the context of the party or parties hereto so require.

- 3.08 "Day" for the purpose of this Agreement, shall be for a twenty-four (24) hour period, i.e. 9 a.m. Tuesday to 9 a.m. Wednesday.

ARTICLE 4 – NO DISCRIMINATION

- 4.01 No discrimination – The parties hereto agree that the prohibitions to discrimination as contained in the Human Rights Act shall apply to both parties. The parties also agree that there shall be no discrimination by reason of Union membership status or activity in the Union.

4.02 Respectful Workplace

- (a) Everyone shall be entitled to a respectful and safe workplace free from harassment and personal harassment. The parties agree to work together to recognize and resolve such problems as they arise. In the event of a complaint, the parties agree to follow the procedures outlined in the Sussex Vale Transition House Harassment Policies and Procedures.
- (b) Harassment Defined: Harassment is any behaviour that demeans, humiliates or embarrasses a person and that a reasonable person should have known would be unwelcome. It includes actions, comments or displays. It may be a single incident or continue over time. Harassment can take place between co-workers, between a manager and employee, between people of the opposite sex or of the same sex, between an employee and a client or between an employee and a job applicant.

The New Brunswick Human Rights Act protects employees from harassment that is related to their race, colour, religion, national origin, ancestry, place of origin, age, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, sexual orientation, sex, social condition, political belief or activity.

Consensual banter or romantic relationships, where the people involved agree with what's happening, are not harassment. Appropriate performance reviews, counselling or discipline by a supervisor or manager are not harassment.

Work-related harassment can take place in the workplace itself or outside of the workplace in a situation that is in some way connected to work. For example, employees (and clients) must be protected from harassment during outings, off-site meetings, business trips and any other event or place related to employment or when the employee is present in the course of employment.

- (c) Personal Harassment Defined: Personal harassment is harassment that is not necessarily based on one of the protected grounds under human rights legislation. It is defined as repeated unconstructive and offensive comments or actions which offend, abuse or humiliate a person, when such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION MEMBERSHIP

- 5.01 All employees of the Employer who are presently members of the Union shall continue to be members of the Union as a condition of employment.

ARTICLE 6 – CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

- 6.01 Acquaint New Employees – The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that an agreement is in effect, with union security and dues check-off.
- 6.02 The Employer shall deduct from the wages due every employee, union dues at the rate of 1.5 per cent of salary. It is understood that "salary" means the rate of pay received by an employee pursuant to Schedule "A" of the collective agreement. Such dues will be deducted from each payroll cheque and be remitted once a month along with a list of names, addresses, and classifications from whose wages the deductions have been made, to its designated official, prior to the fifteenth (15th) of the month following the month in which deductions were made.
- The rate of deductions shall continue until such time as proper written notice is received by the Employer to change such rate. The Union will keep the Employer advised of the name and address of its designated official.
- 6.03 The sums deducted under this Article shall be accepted by the Union as the regular monthly dues of those employees who are or shall become members of the Union and the sum so deducted from non-members of the Union shall be treated as their contribution towards the expenses of maintaining the Union.
- 6.04 Dues Receipts – At the same time that Income Tax (T-4) slips are made available, the Employer shall type on the amount of Union Dues paid by each Union Member in the previous year.
- 6.05 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless from any liability or action arising out of the operation of this article.

The parties agree to keep complaint discussions confidential from other employees and residents, and to discuss with others on an “need-to-know” basis only, such as Board or Union meetings, with Board or Union representatives or the affected employee.

ARTICLE 9 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 9.01 Election of Steward – In order to provide for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the rights of the Union to appoint or elect a steward, whose duties shall be to assist any employee which the steward represents in preparing and presenting her grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.
- 9.02 Servicing Grievances – The Employer agrees that Stewards shall not be hindered, coerced, restrained or interfered with in the performance of their duties while investigating disputes and presenting grievances. It is understood that the steward and the members of the union have their regular work to perform on behalf of the Employer. It is acknowledged that grievances should be serviced as soon as possible and that if it is necessary to service a grievance during work hours, employees will not leave their jobs without obtaining the Employer’s permission. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

The person designated as the final level shall reply to the grievance in writing to the employee within thirty-five (35) calendar days from the date the grievance was presented at the third level. Should the employee not receive a reply or satisfactory settlement of her grievance within thirty-five (35) calendar days from the date on which she presented her grievance at the final level, the employee may refer her grievance to Arbitration as provided in Article 10 (Arbitration) hereof, within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the date on which she should have received a reply from the person designated at the final level.

Within ten (10) days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail indicating the name and address of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two arbitrators shall then meet to select an impartial chairperson.
- If the parties agree, the Board of Arbitration may consist of a single arbitrator.

- 10.03 Board Procedure – The Board may determine its own procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations to it. It shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and render a decision within ten (10) days from the time the Chairperson is appointed.
- 10.04 Decision of the Board – The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. Where there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson shall be final and binding and enforceable on all parties, but in no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions. However, the Board shall have the power to dispose of any discharge or a discipline grievance by any arrangement which in its opinion it deems just and equitable.

- 10.05 Disagreement on Decision – Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision, either party may apply to the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision, which it shall do within three (3) days.

ARTICLE 11 – NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

- 11.01 No strikes or lockouts – There shall be no strikes, walkouts, lockouts, slowdowns or other interruptions of work, during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12 – DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE

- 12.01 Warnings – Whenever the Employer sees it necessary to censure an employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow if such employee fails to bring her work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer shall within five (5) days thereafter give written particulars of such censure to the Secretary of the Union, with a copy to the employee involved. Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to censure an employee, this shall be done in confidence, in a specific office, in the presence of only the employee affected, a Union Steward or designate, and the Employer and the Employer's Representative. The employee has the right to have a Steward present, and the Employer will notify the employee in advance of any disciplinary meeting so that she may contact her Steward to be present. The Steward has the right to consult with a CUPE staff representative and to have her/him present at any disciplinary meeting.

- 12.02 No employee who has completed her probationary period shall be disciplined by suspension without pay, financial penalty, or discharge except for just cause.
- 12.03 Failure of the Employer to provide such written reasons for suspension or discharge shall result in the employee being paid at her regular rate of pay, for the period from the date the suspension or discharge took effect to the date the written reason is presented to the employee.
- 12.04 Where an employee alleges that she has been suspended or discharged in violation of Article 12.02 she may invoke the grievance procedure as set out in this Agreement, and for the purpose of a grievance she shall lodge her grievance at the third level of the grievance procedure.
- 12.05 Where it is determined that an employee has been disciplined by suspension without pay or by discharge in violation of clause 12.02 then the employee shall be immediately reinstated in her former position without loss of seniority or any other benefit which would have accrued to her if she had not been suspended or discharged. One of the benefits which she shall not lose is her regular pay during the period of suspension or discharge, which shall be paid to her at the end of the next complete pay period following her reinstatement.
- 12.06 For the purposes of this Article there shall be only one official personnel file, the location of which the employee shall be advised. Upon a reasonable request made during normal working hours, an employee shall be given, in the presence of a representative of the Employer, an opportunity to read all documents relating to the assessment of her conduct or work performance that are held in the employee's official personnel file. If requested at such time, an employee will be provided with a photocopy of such documents.
- 12.07 A record of disciplinary action shall be removed from the file of an employee after the expiry of a period of twelve (12) months.
- 12.08 A suspension with or without pay shall be for a specified period of time not exceeding twenty-eight (28) calendar days at the discretion of the employer.

14.04 Trial Period – The successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of 144 hours worked. Condition on satisfactory service, such trial promotion shall become permanent after the period of 144 hours worked. In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, or if the employee finds the duties of the new job classification unsatisfactory, she shall be returned to her former position without loss of seniority and former wages or salary. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to her former position without loss of seniority and former wages or salary.

14.05 Union Notification – The Union shall be notified of all appointments, hirings, layoffs, transfers, recalls and terminations of employment of all employees covered by this Agreement when a change occurs.
