10.02 For these reasons, both parties agree that when an employee has such a complaint, he will be encouraged to discuss the matter with his/her supervisor as soon as possible after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint occurred, and before the first step of the grievance procedure is implemented.

ARTICLE 11 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11.01 The Union may appoint or otherwise select not more than four (4) permanent employees to collectively act as a Grievance Committee and each such employee shall be selected from among staff members in a Department, or two or more Departments which are to be represented. If the employee does not receive a reply, or a satisfactory settlement within ten (10) working days from the date on which the grievance was presented to the person designated as the first level in the grievance procedure, the employee may proceed to Step Two.

STEP TWO: Within ten (10) full working days from the expiration of the ten (10) day period referred to in Step One, the employee may present the grievance by personal service or by registered mail to the Vice-President, designated as Level Two in the grievance procedure. Copies of all correspondence concerning the grievance, presented at Level One including the reply by the person designated by the Employer under Step One must accompany the grievance. In an attempt to resolve the grievance, the Vice-President or designate shall meet with the employee and shop steward within five (5) working days from the date on which the grievance was presented to the Vice-President. The Vice-President shall reply in writing to the employee within ten (10) working days from the date of the meeting, and if the employee does not receive a satisfactory settlement of the grievance, the employee may proceed to Step Three.

STEP THREE: Within ten (10) working days from the expiration of the last ten (10) day period referred to in Step Two, the employee may present the grievance in writing either by personal service or by registered mail to the President of the Workplace Health, Safety and Compensation Commission, or his/her designate. The President of the Workplace Health, Safety and Compensation Commission or his/her designate shall reply to the employee within ten (10) working days from the date the grievance was presented to him. If the employee does not receive a reply, or a satisfactory settlement of the grievance from the President of the Workplace Health, Safety and Compensation Commission or his/her designate within ten (10) working days from the date on which the grievance was presented to him, the employees may in accordance with the terms of the New Brunswick Public Service Labour Relations Act refer the grievance to Adjudication not later than twenty (20) working days after the date on which the employees received an unsatisfactory reply from the President of the Workplace Health, Safety and Compensation Commission, or his/her designate.

11.04 In any case where the employee presents a grievance in person, or in any case in which a hearing is held on a grievance at any level, the employee shall be accompanied by a representative of the Union.

11.05 In determining the time in which any step under the foregoing procedures is to be taken, Saturdays, Sundays and recognized holidays shall be excluded. If advantage of the provisions of this Article has not been taken within the time limits specified herein, the alleged grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned and cannot be reopened, except as per the Public Service Labour Relations Act.

11.06 Any grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be initiated at Step Three.

11.07 Time limits specified in this Article may be extended by agreement between the parties in writing.

11.08 Any mutually agreed changes to this Collective Agreement shall form part of this Agreement and are subject to the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 12 – ADJUDICATION

12.01 The provisions of the Public Service Labour Relations Act and regulations governing the adjudication of the grievance shall apply to grievances lodged under the terms of this Agreement.

12.02 Where any employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level in the grievance process with respect to disciplinary action resulting in discharge, suspension or financial penalty, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may refer the grievance to adjudication.

13.03 No employee shall be censured publicly for any reason. If censure becomes necessary, this shall be done in the presence of a steward in the office of either the Department Head or the Manager of Compensation and Labour Relations.

13.04 Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to censure an employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any repetition of the act complained of or the omission referred to, the Employer shall, within five (5) working days thereafter, give written particulars of such censure to the Secretary of the Union. In such instances, written particulars of any censure which may be on the employee's personnel file as of the effective date of this Agreement shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Union, upon request.

13.05 An employee on suspension or discharge, shall be given the reasons for such action, in the presence of the appropriate steward, and the employee and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing.

13.06 When an employee alleges suspension or dismissal in violation of Article 13.01, the employee may, within ten (10) working days of the date notified in writing, invoke the grievance procedures including adjudication as set out in this Agreement, and for the purpose of a grievance alleging violation of Article 13.01, shall lodge the grievance at the final level of the grievance procedure.

13.07 Where it is determined that an employee has been unjustly disciplined by suspension or by discharge in violation of Article 13.01, then an employee shall be immediately reinstated in the former position, without loss of seniority or any other benefits which would have accrued if the employee had not been suspended or discharged. One of the benefits which the employee shall not lose is the wages accruing over the period of suspension or discharge, which shall then be paid at the end of the next complete pay period following reinstatement.

13.08 Any letters of reprimand or any adverse disciplinary reports (except those related to suspension or financial penalty) shall be removed from the file of an employee after expiration of eighteen (18) months after such reprimands or reports.

21.05 An employee who has contributed to the New Brunswick Public Service Superannuation fund for not less than eighteen (18) months and who has exhausted sick leave entitlement, shall upon written application to their manager, if it appears probable that a return to work will occur, be advanced up to fifteen (15) days of anticipatory sick leave. Any such advanced sick leave granted shall be recovered by deduction from any credits subsequently accumulated by the employee. In no case shall any further application for sick leave be approved until the initial advance sick leave has been recovered.

21.06 Where the employment of an employee who has been granted advance sick leave in accordance with Article 21.05 is terminated for any reason, the employee shall compensate the Employer for any such leave that remains unearned at the time of termination.

21.07 The Employer shall grant up to one (1) year leave without pay to any employee who has exhausted sick leave credits and who remains absent because of illness.

21.08 The Employer shall, in January of each year, provide the Union with a report indicating the remaining sick leave entitlement of each employee as of December 31 of the previous year.

21.09 There shall be established forthwith a "sick leave bank" which the Employer shall credit with 100 paid sick leave days. The purpose of this "sick leave bank" shall be to make available additional paid sick leave days to "eligible employees" who have exhausted their personal sick leave entitlement and have utilized the provision of Article 21.05 to a total maximum of 100 such additional paid sick leave days for all such "eligible employees" in any one contract year. "Eligible employees" must make written application to the Manager of Compensation and Labour Relations. Written requests, when possible, should be made at least two (2) weeks in advance prior to need of utilization. The Employer shall, on January 1 of each year, credit the "sick leave bank" with whatever number of days are necessary to replace those days, if any, used by "eligible employees" in the previous year, so that the "sick leave bank" will have 100 paid sick leave days as of January 1 of each year.

21.10 There shall be established forthwith a "sick leave bank committee" comprised of two (2) representatives of the Employer and two (2) representatives of the Union who shall grant paid sick leave to "eligible employees"; in the event of a disagreement between the members of this committee as to the employees' eligibility, a qualified medical doctor shall be selected at random to form the fifth (5th) member of this committee and his/her decision shall be the decision of the committee. An "eligible employee" shall be defined as an employee who has exhausted his/her personal sick leave entitlement and who continues to suffer from an illness which renders him/her unable to work, both of which qualifications are subject to review and approval on a continuing basis by the "sick leave bank committee".

21.11 It is further understood that both parties will mutually examine the possibility of implementing a Long Term Disability Plan for the employees covered by this Agreement. Should a Long Term Disability Plan be implemented which is mutually acceptable the cost shall be the responsibility of the employee.

ARTICLE 22 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

22.01 a) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay up to five (5) days maximum in the case of death of a husband, wife, common-law spouse, child, parent, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepchild, step-parent, stepbrother or sister or any other relative who is resident in the same household as the employee requesting the leave. The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay up to one (1) day maximum in the case of death of an aunt or uncle. Such leave must include the day of the funeral or memorial service. Where the burial occurs outside the province, such leave shall also include reasonable traveling time, to a maximum of an additional two (2) days total. When bereavement occurs during a period of vacation leave, the employee shall be entitled to qualify for bereavement leave and the days of vacation leave shall be rescheduled, provided in compliance with Article 20.08.

b) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay up to five (5) days maximum in the case of critical care where death is anticipated by medical personal and/or life threatening surgery requiring general anesthetic and the recovery time in a critical care unit of a husband, wife, common-law spouse, child, parent, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepchild, step-parent, stepbrother or sister; or or any other relative who is resident in the same household as the employee requesting the leave. For clarification this does not cover day surgery or time once the patient has been removed from critical care unit and is in recovery.

c) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay for time required up to one (1) day maximum in the case of the employee is called to the hospital for an unscheduled medical emergency of a husband, wife, common-law spouse, child, parent or any other relative who is resident in the same household as the employee requesting the leave.

22.02 The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to any two (2) employees selected to represent the Union at conventions, provided that such absence is used only for the aforementioned purpose and does not exceed a combined total of ten (10) working days per year.

22.03 The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to an employee for the purpose of reporting to a Medical Board for examination or investigation in connection with a disability, but such absence shall be limited to one (1) working day. Absence, beyond one (1) working day under this section shall be chargeable to sick leave credits.

22.04 The Employer shall grant casual leave of absence with pay to any employee to attend a funeral as a pallbearer or as a mourner, but such absences shall be limited to actual time required to a maximum of one (1) day. If one-way travel exceeds 300 kilometers, the employee may take a second day without pay.

22.05 The Employer shall grant casual leave of absence with pay to any employee for the purpose of medical or dental appointments which cannot be arranged outside the normal daily working hours. The Employer shall have the right to control the amount of time off for such appointments.

22.06 The Employer shall grant casual leave of absence with pay to a maximum of four (4) employees (no two (2) of which are from the same department), who have been designated by the Union to carry on negotiations with the Employer or to one (1) employee, in addition to the aggrieved, required to service a grievance in accordance with Article 11 of this Agreement.

22.07 The Employer shall grant casual leave of absence with pay to all employees for the purpose of exercising their franchise in any federal, provincial or municipal election. Leave of absence under this section shall be in accordance with the Election Act.

22.08 Any employee or casual employee who believes their personal safety is at risk during inclement weather and does not report to work, is late in reporting for work, or leaves work early shall be given the opportunity to replace such time by accumulated overtime, accumulated vacation or by making up the time if agreed to by the supervisor. When the workplace is closed during an employee's or casual employee's work day due to weather conditions, such employee shall be entitled to leave the workplace without loss of pay. Days during which a workplace is closed due to inclement weather, employees/casual employees of that workplace are not required to be in attendance and shall not suffer any loss of pay nor be required to make up the time on account of such absence. Such right to leave shall not be unreasonably withheld.

For clarification, employees who have taken a vacation day because they have concern that their personal safety was at risk and the office is subsequently closed for the day will have their vacation day reinstated, but employees who have been on pre-approved vacation not related to concern for their personal safety due to inclement weather will not have the vacation day reinstated.

22.09 The Employer shall grant leave of absence without pay to any four (4) employees selected to represent the Union at labour schools or seminars providing that not more than one employee is selected from any department.

22.10 The Employer shall grant leave of absence without pay, upon written request, to any female because of pregnancy. Such leave may extend to those time frames outlined under the Employment Standards Act and at least two (2) weeks' written notice must be provided to the Employer prior to return to duty. The Employer shall permit the use of up to ten (10) days of sick leave credits (if available) for employees proceeding on maternity leave.

22.11 The Employer shall grant leave of absence without pay to an employee who is required to serve as a juror or court witness. However, the Employer shall pay the difference between such employee's normal earnings and any fee received for jury or witness duty. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to produce proof of such service and the fee received.

22.12 Insofar as it is possible to do so, without disrupting the orderly operation of the Centre, the Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to fifty percent (50%) of the employees who are members of Local 946 for the purpose of attending monthly union meetings. Such absences shall not exceed one (1) hour in duration and shall be restricted to twelve (12) meetings per year. The Employer will permit the use of its premises for the purpose of union meetings without cost to the Union provided a room is available.

22.13 If an employee dies, having been granted more paid vacation or sick leave than earned, he/she will be considered to have earned the paid leave granted.

22.14 Any other type of leave of absence, whether it be with or without pay, shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer.

22.15 An employee who is elected or selected for a full-time position with the Union, Canadian Labour Congress, New Brunswick Federation of Labour, District Labour Council, CUPE or the Saint John Community Labour Services, shall be granted leave of absence without pay and benefits. Leave of absence shall be granted for one (1) year. During this authorized leave of absence, the employee's seniority will be maintained. Consideration will be given to renewal of the leave with two (2) month notification prior to completion of the one (1) year leave.

22.16 The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to employees for the purpose of Family Leave. A maximum of three (3) days per calendar year may be used for this purpose. Family leave will be actual time used and time will be subtracted from the employee's accumulated sick time and will count as sick time under Article 21.04 of the agreement.

ARTICLE 23 – INJURED ON DUTY

23.01 An employee who is injured on duty and who required treatment, shall receive regular salary payment for the remainder of the shift or work day without deduction from sick leave credits, provided that medical evidence indicates the employee to be unfit for further work on that day or shift.

23.02 An employee who is injured on duty and receiving salary replacement under the Workers' Compensation Act will continue to receive all other employee benefits of which they are receiving at the time of their injury.

23.03 The absence of an employee who is receiving total temporary disability benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act shall not be charged against the employee's sick leave or vacation credits.

ARTICLE 24 – PROMOTION AND STAFF CHANGES

24.01 It is the right of the Employer to determine and establish position classifications and/or reclassifications.

24.02 The Employer agrees to provide the Union with job descriptions for classifications listed in Appendix "A" within sixty (60) days of the execution of this Agreement. When a new position is added to Appendix "A" during the term of this Agreement, the assigned salary shall be subject to negotiation, and a job description shall be provided to the Union.

24.03 If there is a significant change in the level of duties, responsibilities or educational requirements for any such classification and a revised classification is warranted, the assigned salary shall be subject to negotiation, and a job description shall be provided to the Union.

24.04 Prior to filling any position listed in Appendix "A" or any non-bargaining unit position (excluding those of treatment staff) or any newly created position, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing of the details and shall post notice of the vacancy on the staff bulletin boards for a minimum of six (6) working days, thus affording permanent and casual employees an opportunity to make application therefor. Such notices shall contain the classification, required knowledge, education, ability and skills, hours of duty, and, for bargaining unit positions, salary range or rate. The Employer shall refrain from publicly advertising the position until after such posting has been completed.

Permanent employees' seniority shall be considered greater than that of any casual employee. No casual employee shall be considered until all permanent employees have been processed.

24.05 Appointment to the position shall be made of the applicant with the greatest seniority from among those who meet the necessary job requirements, as posted.

The successful candidate, if already an employee as defined in this Agreement, shall be placed on a trial basis in the new classification or position for a period of six (6) calendar months. If the employee proves unsatisfactory in the position during the aforementioned trial period, he shall be returned to his/her former position without loss of seniority or former salary, and any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall be returned to his/her former position without loss of seniority or former salary. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion shall become permanent after the period of six (6) months.

24.06 Following the selection of the successful applicant, and prior to the actual appointment, the Manager of Compensation and Labour Relations shall notify the Union of the results of the competition.

24.07 If the employee feels that the selection process has been unfair and, if the Union supports this contention, an appeal may be lodged by the Union. The appeals committee will consist of the Manager of Compensation and Labour Relations, and the Manager of Administrative Services, the appropriate Department Head, plus three (3) representatives of the Union. This committee shall then review the findings of the selection committee in an effort to resolve the matter.

24.08 When an employee is promoted to a higher classification, the assigned salary shall normally be the minimum of the new salary range. Should this minimum not be 5% higher than the wage received by the employee before promotion took place, the employee will move to the step, which is at least 5% higher. In no case can the salary received on a promotion exceed the maximum of the position.

24.09 The Employer shall notify the Union of any hiring, appointments, layoffs, rehiring and termination of employment.

24.10 Six (6) weeks before the introduction of any technological change which may require new or greater skills than are possessed by the employees affected, the Employer shall notify the Union of the proposed change. In the event that such changes require new and greater skills than are possessed by the employees, then such employees shall be given a reasonable period of time during which they may acquire such skills.

An employee who is displaced from a job because of technological change will be given the opportunity (including a reasonable training period, if necessary) to fill other positions in the bargaining unit in accordance with the employee's qualifications, ability and seniority.

24.11 Employees who are the successful applicants in a lower paying position shall be paid the top rate of the lower rated position.

24.12 To assist permanent employees in qualifying for advancement, the Employer agrees to pay for the cost of successfully completed academic or technical courses, which are mutually beneficial to the Employer and the employee, and which are taken after normal working hours. The employee must have prior permission from the Employer to undertake the course, should they wish reimbursement.

ARTICLE 25 – TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS

25.01 Temporary assignments of more than thirty (30) working days shall be posted forty-eight (48) hours and be awarded to the senior employee who meets the minimal qualifications of the position.

An employee required to substitute in a higher position during the temporary absence of another employee for at least three (3) consecutive working days or three (3) days within a week, shall be entitled to receive an additional ten percent (10%) in salary, or the minimum or the position to which he/she is assigned, whichever is the greater, provided the higher maximum is not thereby exceeded. Irrespective of the higher maximum, no employee required to substitute in a higher position as stated above, shall receive less than an additional five percent (5%) in salary. This additional salary shall then be retroactive to the first day that the temporary assignment was effected. Substitution shall be under the direction of the Department Head and in writing except in the case where the employee's duties require the employee to supervise.

ARTICLE 26 – LAY-OFF AND REHIRINGS

26.01 The Employer shall not lay-off any employee for any reason other than lack of work.

Except in cases of emergency, the Employer shall give the Union at least thirty (30) days' notice of any impending lay-offs. The Employer and the Union will meet to discuss the disposition of staff so affected within ten (10) calendar days of such notice. Every reasonable effort will be made to provide continuing employment for employees so affected.

In the event that, after the discussions outlined above, that lay-offs are necessary, the Employer shall notify the employees of impending lay-offs twenty working days prior to the effective date. Where such advance notice is not given, the Employer shall ensure payment of salary for that part of the twenty (20) working days for which work was not made available.

26.02 In the event of a lay-off, employees shall be released in the reverse order of seniority. When rehiring is to be effected, employees shall be recalled in order of seniority, providing such employees are qualified.

26.03 No job applicants shall be hired until the laid off employees have had the opportunity for recall in a position for which they are qualified. The recall right will expire 24 months after the layoff.

26.04 The Employer shall pay the full premium for dental and health insurance coverage for an employee who is laid off for a period of three (3) months or less.

26.05 An employee who is affected by work shortages in his/her department will be entitled to claim the job of another employee in any department subject to the following conditions:

- (i) That such other job is held by an employee with less seniority:
- (ii) That such employee claiming the job has sufficient qualifications, skill and ability to perform the job.

The Employer shall not alter the qualifications of the position without giving prior notice to the Union.

Such employees meeting the requirements under (ii) above shall be given a reasonable period of time to demonstrate sufficient skill and ability to perform the job.

26.06 When the Employer arbitrarily assigns an employee to another department, or to another position which constitutes a major change in the employee's duties, the employee shall have the right to exercise his/her seniority in accordance with Article 26.05.

26.07 Grievance concerning lay-offs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 27 – DISABLED EMPLOYEE PREFERENCE

27.01 An employee who has given good and faithful service and who, through advancing years or temporary disablement, is unable to perform the regular duties of the position, shall be given priority of consideration of light work available for which the employee is qualified, at the salary payable for the position assigned.

ARTICLE 28 – WELFARE BENEFITS

28.01 The members of CUPE Local 946 will be covered by the same Insured Benefit Plan of WorkSafeNB, which covers the non-bargaining employees of the organization under the same conditions existing for the non-bargaining employees including the monthly payment, which is 10% of the monthly premium.

Local 946 will have a member representing the local on the Health Benefit Consultation Committee.

There will be no substantial changes to the benefits or the monthly premium costs paid by the employees during the life of this Agreement.

28.02 The Employer shall pay the full premium of the existing Group Life Insurance Plan for all employees in the amount of $60,000 basic benefit effective the signing date of this Agreement. 30.02 In the event the Employer transfers, merges, amalgamates, or combines any of its operations or functions with or to another organization, the Employer, through whatever merger or transfer agreement involved, agrees that all benefits and conditions of employment held by the employees shall be integrated and shall not be adversely affected, insofar as it is possible for the Employer to do so.
